

Promoting British Values

In 2014 Lord Nash said: 'A key part of our plan for education is to ensure children become valuable and fully rounded members of society who treat others with respect and tolerance, regardless of background'.

Pathways Education has embraced British Values through the enriching curriculum offered. All school staff demonstrate and promote such values and attitudes, providing positive role models for the children.

Our young people are always listened to by adults and are taught to listen carefully and with concern to each other, respecting the right of every individual to have their opinions and voices heard.

We encourage our young people so that they feel empowered to become strong citizens who live by the rule of law, are accepting of everyone's differences and work hard to support each other through challenges and celebrate achievements.
